Welcome

Family Centers thanks you for donating your time, talents and service to our organization! We could not meet the needs of our clients without the invaluable work of volunteers. We appreciate your willingness to make a commitment to volunteering at Family Centers and we look forward to working with you.

The purpose of this Volunteer Handbook is to outline mutual expectations and provide useful information concerning placement as well as policies and practices for volunteers.

The policies in this handbook are guidelines only, and Family Centers reserves the right to change them at any time. It is understood that volunteering with Family Centers is deemed to be at will, whereby either Family Centers or the volunteer has the right to end the arrangement at any time with or without notice.

Family Centers Facts

Family Centers Inc. is a private non-profit family service organization meeting the needs of more than 23,500 children, adults, and families throughout Lower Fairfield County. More than 2,400 skilled professionals and trained volunteers help to deliver our services and promote the mission of Family Centers in community.

Mission Statement:

Empowering children, adults, families and communities to realize their potential

Family Centers has a rich history of serving communities throughout lower Fairfield County dating back to 1891 with the creation of the Stamford Family Welfare Society. Over the years, Family Centers has grown into one of the area's leading and most trusted providers of health, human service and education programs.
